

A Standard Raised

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, The Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a Standard"

Isaiah 59:19

Welcome Church

ASR Introduction

It was years ago when this section was first birthed within my spirit. In those years I've had my ups and downs, good times and bad, I've walked with the Lord and I ran with the devil.

Most people, including those that went to church all their life still have not received the spiritual Truths contained herein. The reason for this is because many pastors are not called of God, nor is He in their hearts.

Indeed, because of the foolishness of many the Name of Christ is blasphemed and mocked by many today.

As a result of this current state of affairs, Truth is fallen in the streets and few if any are even capable of recognizing it any longer.

In the old days of time past, an army was known by its "Standard," or flag. And, when the enemy came in like a flood and discomfited the troops, the standard was raised so that the scattered forces had a position upon which to regroup.

For this purpose The ASR was Born of God

How long must I see the standard And hear the sound of the trumpet? Jer 4:6

The question is; how long must Gods call be ignored? How long will we not answer His call, His Banner of Salvation has Been Set up, That Banner was and is Jesus The Christ. Gods Standard before the foundations of the World, and book of names written before the foundations of the World. No longer can we ignore it, no longer can we neglect so great a Salvation.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. 4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

Jn 1:1–5.

- This book was written on the premise that the average individual has never read the Word of God and therefore is ignorant thereof. Regardless of past education in spiritual matters, with the assistance of this book anyone can comprehend the Word; and in the end thereof be glad they did.
- Also, the purpose of this book is to reignite the fire that was possessed by our founding forefathers that caused them to cast off the shackles of tyranny and despotism that plagued the land then, and is once again resurfacing in our land today. From a corrupt government that imports narcotics, to the idolatry taught the children in schools, to the sodomy glorified in “churches,” truly this speech that sparked the Revolutionary War is as relevant today as it was then;

Boston 1770

A Speech by John Hancock

“...The town of Boston, ever faithful to the British crown, has been invested by a British fleet; the troops of George the Third have crossed the Atlantic, not to engage an enemy, but to assist a band of traitors in trampling on the rights and liberties, which, as a father, he ought ever to regard, and as a king, he is bound in honor to defend from violation, even at the risk of his own life.

These troops, upon their first arrival, took possession of our senate house, pointed their cannon at against the judgment hall, and even continued them there, whilst the supreme court of the province was actually sitting to decide upon the lives and fortunes of the king's subjects. Our streets nightly resounded with the noise of their riot and debauchery; our peaceful citizens were hourly exposed to shameful insults, and often felt the effects of their violence and outrage.

But this was not all; as if they thought it not enough to violate our civil rights, they endeavored to deprive us of the enjoyment of our religious; to vitiate our morals, and thereby render us worthy of destruction. Hence the rude din of arms, which broke in upon your solemn devotions in your temples, on that day hallowed by Heaven, and set apart by God Himself for His peculiar worship.

tence, all the arts which idleness and luxury could invent, were used to betray our youth of one sex into vagance and effeminacy, and of the other to infamy and ruin; and have they not succeeded all too well? Has a reverence for religion sensibly decayed? Have not our infants learned to lisp curses, before they knew their id import? Have not our youth forgotten they were Americans, and regardless of the admonition of the wise aged, copied, with a servile imitation, the frivolity and the vices of their tyrants? And must I be compelled to know, that even the noblest, fairest part of creation, have not entirely escaped their cruel snares? —or why have I seen an honest father clothed with shame; why a virtuous mother drowned in tears?

forbear, and come reluctantly to the transactions of that dismal night, when in such quick succession we felt extremes of grief, astonishment, and rage; when Heaven in anger, for a dreadful moment suffered Hell to take the reins when Satan, with his chosen band, opened the sluices of New England's blood, and sacrilegiously polluted our land with the dead bodies of her guiltless sons.

Let this sad tale of death never be told, without a tear; let not the heaving bosom cease to burn with a manly indignation at the relation of it, through the long tracks of future time; let every parent tell the shameful story to his listening children, til tears of pity glisten in their eyes, or boiling passion shakes their tender frames.

Wicked and designing knaves, murderers, parricides! How dare you tread upon the earth, which has drunk the blood of slaughtered innocence shed by your hands? How dare you breathe that air, which wafted to the ear of Heaven the groans of those who fell a sacrifice to your accursed ambition? —But if the laboring earth doth not expand her jaws; if the air you breathe is not commissioned to be the minister of your death; yet hear it and tremble! The eye of Heaven penetrates the darkest chambers of the soul; and you, though screened from human observation, must be arraigned, must lift up your hands, red with the blood of those whose death you procured, at the tremendous bar of God.

But I gladly quit this theme of death—I would not dwell too long upon the horrid effects, which have already followed, from the quartering of regular troops in this town; let our misfortunes instruct posterity to guard against these evils. Standing armies are sometimes, [I would by no means say generally, much less universally,] composed of persons who have rendered themselves unfit to live in civil society; who are equally indifferent to a king, or a Louis, who for the addition of one penny a day to their wages, would desert the Christian Cross, and kneel under the crescent of the Turkish sultan; from such men as these what has not a state to fear? With such as these the usurping Caesar passed the Rubicon; with such as these he humbled mighty Rome, and forced the mistress of the world to own a master in a traitor. These are the men whom sceptered robbers now employ to frustrate the designs of God, and render vain the bounties which His gracious Hand pours indiscriminately upon His creatures...

Foundation

“Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matthew 25:34

When the enemy comes in like a flood, The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him. Isa 59:19

The above verse is what inspired the book A Standard Raised, which led to the birth of the Church you are now attending.

In case you are wandering why? Why the name, why this verse, how does any of this apply? Let me share with you and I pray the Good Lord, God Almighty will open your eyes to see, your ears to hear and your heart to understand. In times past armies, nations, tribes and the like would fly what we refer to as a Standard. Some may call it a "banner" or "insignia" The Yellow flag with a snake broken in pieces called the Gadsen was this type of Standard. Below the snake words were written "Join or Die" This flag and the 13 colony American stars and Stripes Flag were used during battles to inspire our forefathers to keep fighting, in the midst of what looked to be hopeless. If anyone would look at the history of the American Revolution they would be amazed that we are a Nation at all. By all odds we should have lost. Not just lost but lost overwhelmingly to a far better equipped enemy, better weapons, more soldiers, a much greater economy to fuel and feed the war machine. But we did not loose. I will tell you why we are a Nation made up of people who are free to worship God and live a life to freely glorify His name in all the earth. It was the will of God. That is the simple answer, Yes America is America because God willed it. With that said, His will was carried out by men who loved Him and chose to serve Him and have the faith to carry on.

Then in that day The nations will resort to the root of Jesse, Who will stand as a signal (Standard) for the peoples; And His resting place will be glorious.
Isa 11:10

In days of Old an Army, Kingdom, Tribe, even families were known by their Standard. As warfare got to be more strategic, Standards were used to delegate orders to different branches of an army, such as archers, infantry, calvary and so on. The most Simple was the National Standard, if a time came when the army got confused or suffered loss due to lack of orders or leadership The Standard was raised to rally the troops back, so they may find solid ground and ultimately find a way forward unto victory. This is why the Assembly of A Standard Raised has been born. God once asked in His own Throne room "who shall I send" There amongst all the heavenly host was a man in the spirit, brought there by the will of God, answered God "Here I am send me" . The Book A Standard Raised, was written on the premise that the average individual has never read the Word of God and therefore is ignorant thereof. Regardless of past education in spiritual matters, with the assistance of this book anyone can comprehend the Word; and in the end thereof be glad they did.

Also, the purpose of this book is to reignite the fire that was possessed by our founding forefathers that caused them to cast off the shackles of tyranny and despotism that plagued the land then, and is once again resurfacing in our land today. From a corrupt government that imports narcotics, to the idolatry taught the children in schools, to the sodomy glorified in "churches,

Let it be known America was founded as a Christian Nation

- Benjamin Franklin: Praised be Thy Name forever. Thou abhorrest in Thy creatures treachery and deceit, malice, revenge, Intemperance and every other hurtful Vice; but Thou art a Lover of justice and sincerity, of friendship, benevolence and every virtue. Thou art my Friend, my Father, and my Benefactor.

“A nation of well-informed men who have been taught to know and prize the rights which God has given them cannot be enslaved. It is in the region of ignorance that tyranny begins.”

- John Adams wrote the day after Congress approved Independence

I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.

- Sam Adams: Quoted during the signing of The Declaration of Independence

We have this day restored the Sovereign to Whom all men ought to be obedient. He reigns in heaven and from the rising to the setting of the sun, let His kingdom come.

- Noah Webster "Founding Father of American Scholarship and Education

“In my view, the Christian religion is the most important and one of the first things in which all children, under a free government, ought to be instructed ... No truth is more evident to my mind than that the Christian religion must be the basis of any government intended to secure the rights and privileges of a free people.”

Then in that day The nations will resort to the root of Jesse,
Who will stand as a signal for the peoples; And His resting place will be glorious.

Isa. 11:10

In the next weeks and months we will go through the whole, book, "A Standard Raised" (free to download) it is our Doctrine of Theology, and will be the main content for sermons until completed. We may change it up a bit depending on God's will. I suggest reading the book at your own pace, As far as Standards go, if you understand the purpose of one. Jesus The Christ was God's own for us. Glory be Him, Blessed is the name of the Lord.

How can one neglect so great a salvation?
